

CYCLE OREGON 2006: THE ROADS LESS TRAVELED

This year, Cycle Oregon will immerse you in the joys of life off the beaten path. Way off the path. We went looking for the unspoiled vistas, the small towns you have to work to find, the crooked roads where wildlife is abundant and cars are not. Well, we found all that and more. So join us for a week of riding where bicycles will rule the road. Where you and your fellow two-wheeled adventurers will outnumber the population of the host towns. Where the scenery will take your breath away as much as the climbs. Join us on the roads less traveled.
